

How do we establish deep friendships with fellow Christians?

Can our relationship with God override differences of opinion?

How can the relationship we have with God be integral in our friendships?

Join us this October for the next Ministerial Council Forum to discuss these questions as we dig deeper to understand what friendship looks like from a Christian perspective.

Les DeSouza, from Ontario, Canada will discuss the importance and value of deep Christian friendships. Dylan Gates, from Marceline, Missouri, will help us understand the characteristics of those relationships. We will spend time with Rodney Boone, from Meridian, Idaho, who will help us with how to apply these concepts in our daily lives.
